Sex and Intimacy with CKD Recording Now Available!

Our next education seminar is scheduled for Thursday, March 23 at 4:00 PM. Our presenter, David Spero, has been a nurse for 40 years and has lived with multiple sclerosis (MS) for 30 years. He knows chronic illness from inside and out. While CKD can interfere with physical intimacy, it can't prevent it. Join us Thursday to learn about why sex is important, possible, and beneficial. Please note this presentation will contain adult content regarding intimacy and CKD.
