

Airport Screening Resources for People with Disabilities or Medical Conditions

There are airport screening resources available for people with disabilities and/or medical conditions that are planning to fly. These resources include:

1. Contact information for TSA Cares where you can ask questions and express concerns related to airport screening
2. Information about connecting with a Passenger Support Specialist and/or customer service manager at the airport (Note: the level of assistance will vary)
3. Enrollment information for TSA Pre?®, which may result in shorter lines and wait times at the airport
4. Additional information about what to expect during the airport security screening process if you have a disability or medical condition
5. A link to download and print out TSA?s Disability Notification Card
